

The 2008 Great Floridian Camp Trip & Waterstop

Join us on the shores of Lake Minneola for a frightfully good time as we howl and hand out water to the competitors for Saturday October 25th's Iron-Distance race in Clermont. A caravan will be traveling up Friday evening to set up tents, and starting Saturday morning, we'll be setting up our water stop (a mile away from the finish line) as a giant Halloween Party!

Who: Any Mad Dogs and Guests who want to Have Fun
What: At the Great Floridian Waterstop
Where: Clermont is approximately one hour and 20 minutes from St. Petersburg
Specifically, we'll be at West Beach Park
12th & Lake Minneola Drive (North of Carroll) Clermont, FL
It's not on a map: hit your GPS for 12th & Carroll, then drive a block north. Camping is FREE.
When: Friday nighters? We'll leave St. Pete around 5PM Oct 24th. If interested in caravanning, contact spmd1661@triathlete.com or call 727-570-2921, before October 22nd.
Saturday, Oct 25th folks? Come any time after race start.
Dress: Creepy Halloween costumes: we'll be lurking for you!
Amenities: FREE Electricity, water, bathroom facilities, & outdoor shower on site, FREE club grilled food & suds.
Contact: Angela Hawkes—727-570-2921—spmd1661@triathlete.com

What to Bring?:

- Music/Boom Box
- Halloween Decorations
- Tent/Camp Gear
- Camp Chairs
- Comfy Clothes
- Bug Spray
- Flashlights
- A smile
- Wear a costume
- Bring Friends & Volunteers!

Please e-mail your RSVP with T-Shirt Size to spmd1661@triathlete.com By October 20th: Last-minute Dogs welcome

